PREFACE

This Handbook is intended to provide guidance for personnel engaged in mobile works. It is applicable to any works carried out by constantly moving vehicles, and covers works on all types of roads including expressways and freeways.

It is intended to be used primarily as a field reference guide to cover a specific area of roadworks signage. It contains only those provisions of AS 1742.3* that are considered to apply in the particular cases with which it deals, and for convenience, reproduces them in summary form. It is not intended to supersede AS 1742.3 and in any cases where there may appear to be differences in specified requirements or recommendations, or where matters could be interpreted differently from the parent Standard, it is intended that the Standard specification, recommendation or interpretation should prevail.

Assistance in the preparation of this Handbook was provided by representatives of the following organizations:

Department of Transport, South Australia

Department of Transport, Tasmania

Queensland Main Roads

Roadmarking Industry Association of Australia

Roads and Traffic Authority, N.S.W.

VicRoads

Other Handbooks in this series are listed on the back cover

Users of Standards are reminded that copyright subsists in all Standards Australia publications and software. Except where the Copyright Act allows and except where provided for below no publications or software produced by Standards Australia may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system in any form or transmitted by any means without prior permission in writing from Standards Australia. Permission may be conditional on an appropriate royalty payment. Requests for permission and information on commercial software royalties should be directed to the head office of Standards Australia.

Standards Australia will permit up to 10 percent of the technical content pages of a Standard to be copied for use exclusively in-house by purchasers of the Standard without payment of a royalty or advice to Standards Australia.

Standards Australia will also permit the inclusion of its copyright material in computer software programs for no royalty payment provided such programs are used exclusively in-house by the creators of the programs.

Care should be taken to ensure that material used is from the current edition of the Standard and that it is updated whenever the Standard is amended or revised. The number and date of the Standard should therefore be clearly identified.

The use of material in print form or in computer software programs to be used commercially, with or without payment, or in commercial contracts is subject to the payment of a royalty. This policy may be varied by Standards Australia at any time.
